

9-29-1945

Evelyn Rivers Harlow, Washington D.C., To Mrs.
Joel Randolph Adams, Claremont, Mississippi.
September 29, 1945.

Evelyn Rivers

Follow this and additional works at: https://egrove.olemiss.edu/adams_lett

Part of the United States History Commons

Recommended Citation

Rivers, Evelyn, "Evelyn Rivers Harlow, Washington D.C., To Mrs. Joel Randolph Adams, Claremont, Mississippi. September 29, 1945." (1945). Letters. 228.

https://egrove.olemiss.edu/adams_lett/228

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Allan Boyce Adams Collection at eGrove. It has been accepted for inclusion in Letters by an authorized administrator of eGrove. For more information, please contact egrove@olemiss.edu.

Wm. J. R. Adams
Clarksdale
Mississippi

Route 2
Claremont

Major Rivers Hanson

1622 19th St. N.W.

Washington 9, D.C.

Friday

Dearest Fannie,

Just came in and found your letter. How can you say your letters are uninteresting? You always tell me so much news and just knowing what you're doing is interesting enough for me. It's my letters that are so short and dull because I have so little time to write and am always so dead tired at night.

Am so glad Fannie seems so crazy about Ole Miss. There's nothing like College. I can't wait to hear what she pledges.

Tell Mrs. Thompson Am sorry she's having such a time with her finger. I hope it's all right by now.

Please try to take things easy, Dannie, and keep well. You said you haven't been feeling too good and nothing upsets me as much as knowing you might not be taking care of yourself like you should. I just can't stand to think about you being sick and there's no need for you to if you'll just take things slower and stop going like you're shot out of a gun. Now I mean it - you don't belong just to you - you belong to me and wait you to be good til I get home!

Don't be surprised to hear that I'm on my way home anytime now. Our division is due to close out no later than Oct. 15 and Col.
Chase thinks it very doubtful that I'll be able to find anything for us to do after that. You know there are so many people who have been here since the first of the war and worlds of them are being released so naturally that means we'll go too. As the government the ones who have been here the longest are the ones who'll get to stay.
You know I wouldn't be telling the truth if I pretended I'll mind coming home. Lots of the girls we know up here have already been released and have gone home and I want to go, too.

Yes, Anita is coming next week. and. I'm so glad because she and Sonny both seem so excited about it. I'm going to fly up Friday and stay til Sunday. I can't wait to see her. Hope I can save enough money to fly home.

I want have Mother
send anything else. I know I'll have a time as it is getting packed and ready to come home. I packed all my summer things and will send them next week.

Don't stop and eat supper.

I love you.

Joe